Santacruz (W), Near the Santacruz Barista
Mumbai 400 054

Restaurant

A chic neighborhood bistro, offering a leisurely, upscale dining experience. With an eclectic menu offering, featuring global fusion, in an ambient setting, paired with fine wines. After 8 years of experience in the hospitality industry, specializing in F'n'B Management, Roy Edwin, along with his wife Geetika, conceptualized "5-The Restaurant". Their vision was clear and unique – to create an original, F'n'B product an up market look and feel, that would satiate the desires of the aspiring, value-driven middle market. On April 5, 2002, '5-The Restaurant' opened its doors to the public, for lunch and dinner, 7 days a week.

5-The Restaurant has laid out a special menu to beat the heat this summer with a choice of soups, salads and main courses along with special low fat dessert.

The delicacies include spearmint flavoured cold Cucumber Soup or oregano flavoured Papaya soup, Shrimp cocktail, Mango salad, Mint chickewn, Lemon cheese cake and a lot more.

6 Degrees

*The Leela Hotel
Sahar, Mumbai 400 059*

Bar / Pub

"A refreshing entrée to the nightlife scene in North Mumbai, 6-Degrees is an exciting new bar for discerning guests who wish to enjoy quality cocktails, food and music in a vibrant and most decidedly cosmopolitan setting.

The stylish sophistication of the bar is personified by its name, where 6 degrees not only represents the ideal temperature at which champagne is served, but also the famous mathematical model that reveals the social connectivity among individuals in any given society, and hence, the widely quoted phrase of "six degrees of separation". This Bar "6 Degrees" is a celebration of our connectivity as social beings, as well as a homage to the finer elements in life that we take pleasure in.

6-Degrees is uniquely situated overlooking the swimming pool of the prestigious Leela Hotel. The verdant, spacious and dramatic poolside setting calls to mind the impression of timeless luxury and forgotten inhibitions. Upon entering the space, guests will feel a great sense of arrival and anticipation. Inside the bar, the stunning interior design of Carl Ettensperger, accentuated by the inviting mood lighting, conveys intimate luxury and an undoubted sense of well-being. It is an ideal setting to unwind at the end of the day, while enjoying a few of the finer things in life. And while the mood may be sophisticated, the style is one of accessibility, where guests can feast their eyes on and order from a breathtaking wall display of vodka and, of course, champagne.

Juhu, Mumbai*

Restobar – Lounge

A celebration of the senses. A meeting point between the splendour of the old world and a new-age assertiveness. Aurus – a home by the sea, where golden sands and opulent chandeliers come together in a convergence of nature and luxury.

From Dish Hospitality Private Limited, comes this world-class fine dining restaurant and lounge bar on the beachfront in Juhu. A refreshing change from the minimalist trend of old, Aurus – the Latin word for ‘made of gold’ – embraces all things plush. It reflects the spirit of the new Indian, who expects global standards of hospitality; in an ambience that is as sophisticated as it is luxuriously decadent.

With the sea and an endless expanse of blue sky within reach, Aurus takes its external tropical landscaping and warm interiors to the next level.

Then, of course, there’s the food. Fine cuisine with subtle undertones, featuring everything from duck and quail to escargot. The Chef recommends experiencing Aurus’ multi-course meals, while the bar boasts of an extensive wine list, fine spirits and eclectic cocktails.

Restaurant

Well, a sophisticated dhaba is what we call this place. An open terrace with nice 'khatiyas' to sit on and enjoy the typical North Indian cuisine is what they have to offer. Tall huge copper glasses to serve water and lassi and copper thalis to serve food. Smack and lick your fingers because the food here is indeed irresistible! And if your lucky enough, someday you might even catch Jagjit Singh singing ghazals and entertaining you.

China House Lounge

Grand Hyatt Vakola

Off Western Express Highway, Santacruz East, Mumbai 400 055

Restaurant

Launched in May 2007, China House is a new and unique paradigm to dining and lounging in the city of Mumbai. Located on a separate level, the multi-level lounge is the perfect setting for intimate lounging and conversation, whether over dinner, or for pre-dinner drinks or late night cocktails.

The main feature of the lounge is the centre, island-style LED light bar, with an array of bottles and unconventional glassware that appear suspended on large glass shelves overhead. Avant-garde interiors form a part of the single private room, while semi-private booths with plush oversized armchairs and open spaces add to the space as the music lingers in the air. The in-house signature beverages, from the classics to the unique after-dinner cocktails, enhance the feel of the lounge even further.

Located on the mezzanine level is "I deck", the private area which is minimally lit and akin in decor to a private lounge. This relaxing retreat offers the perfect setting to linger after dinner over a fine single malt or to celebrate an occasion with a few near and dear ones. And, if the mood takes them, guests can break away from the seductive atmosphere, switch gears and connect to their own I-pod, listen to their own music and sink into the mesmerising feel of being in their own arena. After all, the "I deck" is all about your unique personality.

Multi-faceted in spirit, the China House lounge area serves as a versatile retreat and the ideal place to linger after dinner over a drink, or to party to the music spun by the in-house DJ.

Indigo

4 Mandlik Road,
Colaba, Mumbai 400 001

Restobar – Lounge

Housed in a turn-of-the century stand-alone bungalow, situated on a bylane off the Gateway of India in Colaba, South Bombay, the restaurant Indigo makes it mark for several reasons. The minimalist approach to its interiors where natural light takes centre-stage over ornamentation; the warmth and old-world charm; the courteous and knowledgeable wait staff; the serious approach to food preparation; and its extensive wine list which won it Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for three consecutive years.

Conceived in response to the lacuna of fine dining restaurants in Bombay, where a meal of western cuisine could only be eaten in a 5-star hotel restaurant, Rahul and Malini Akerkar felt that the Bombay diner had traveled enough to develop a sophisticated and discerning palate, and whose need was not being met.

So in April 1999, Indigo threw open its doors to the public and, five years later, continues to enjoy major success. Malini has ensured that the restaurant extends its boundaries beyond a mere eating establishment. Over the years, therefore, Indigo has been host to art shows, theatre experiences, jazz nights, and several wine and guest chef dinners.

Masala Bay

*The Taj Lands End, Bandstand,
Bandra (W), Mumbai 400 050*

Restaurant

Elevating the cuisine experience to a higher level is the modern interiors that give Masala Bay a neat and inviting look. A harmonious composition of forms varying in texture, material and colour, the interiors of the restaurant are enhanced by the tactical use of light and contrast that lends a feel of an open, large space. The furniture layout gives the restaurant an uncluttered, chic space. The overall effect achieved is dramatic and progressive. A far cry from the heavy ornate curry houses so associated with Indian food, this avant-garde restaurant is a captivating reflection of the new identity of India.

Marking a departure from the usual trends, the emphasis at Masala Bay is on light food cooked in minimum butter, cream and extra virgin olive oil, blending traditional Indian recipes with international cooking styles. The extensive cuisine spread features traditional Indian food with an accent on seafood preparations from different coastal regions of India.

Restaurant

The split-level layout of this Chinese restaurant, which specialises in authentic Sichuan cuisine, allows diners to enjoy a view of the Arabian Sea and the Portuguese Fort, from anywhere in the room. The right-angled zigzag of the back wall imitates a Chinese screen offering secluded bays for semi-private dining. This is one restaurant where you never feel crowded as all tables are comfortably spaced out. A pale jade green, the restaurant's signature colour, offset by the black & gold of the chairs and complemented by paintings with Chinese motifs, blend to create an unmistakable aura of subtle intimacy. Glass etchings and gurgling water create Oriental ambience.

Mostly Grills

*The Orchid Ecotel, Nehru Road, Vile Parle (E), Near the Domestic Airport,
Mumbai 400 099*

Restaurant

Mostly Grills is an open-air fine dining restaurant on the rooftop of The Orchid serving a range of grilled delicacies. It has an idyllic setting with the pool on one side and a bird's eye view of the airport on the other.

The word barbeque or Barbucoa or Barbe-a-quene has its origins in the Taino indigenous nation of the Caribbean and Florida. The ba comes from Baba (father) Ra from Yara (place) Bi from Bibi (beginning) Cu from Guacu (the sacred fire) or "the beginning of the sacred fire". This outdoor form of cooking large chunks of meat very slowly, using only the smoke, has become an art in itself. In fact, there are professional Pit Masters who take years before they can really claim to have mastered this art form. Grilling on the other hand, is the cooking of smaller portions of meat placed directly over the fire (heat). Cooked quickly with frequent turning, this outdoor pastime happens to be the specialty at Mostly Grills.

Other places at The Orchid: Merlin's, Vindhyas, Boulevard.

The chicken is flame-grilled right in front of you and basted thoroughly in your choice of sauce: Lemon & Herb for the not so brave, Medium PERi-PERi for the slightly more adventurous and Hot or Extra Hot PERi-PERi for the real daredevils. Origami

4th Floor, Atria Millennium Mall,
Dr. Annie Besant Road, Worli,
Mumbai 400 018

Restaurant

Origami, authentic Japanese restaurant embraces traditional recipes conjured up by Chef Kazuhrio Koizumi, Japanese speciality Chef. Exuding an understated elegance, Origami's interiors are traditional and simple using interesting textures of natural woods and frosted glass panels. The restaurant showcases a live Sushi Bar counter with the most interesting display of seafood specially imported from Japan.

Most people have preconceptions when it comes to Japanese food. Silver screen ideals and miscommunications have created stereotypes of raw fish and rice that were hard to break; however, true Japanese dining is a fascinating and complex art form.

The principles of traditional Japanese dining revolve around the ideas of nature and harmony. All the elements of a meal should be in harmony, the elements of the dish, each of the dishes on the table, and the diner – with the emphasis on nature. Every effort is taken to prevent any of the natural flavours from being masked. Chef Koizumi has taken each step to assure that these elements come together at Origami for the experience to be as pleasing to the eye as to the palate.

Origami features traditional Japanese cuisines like Teppan Yaki, Sushi, Teriyaki, and Tempura. It offers a range of Japanese food which both the experienced and the novice diner can enjoy. Origami offers 35-40 different varieties with 22 varieties of fish set up in a 45 seater restaurant with rectangle shaped Japanese lanterns, striking Asian tapestries, kimonos & dolls thus giving the dining room a Zen like atmosphere.

So all you sushi aficionados and novices, come and savour the traditional cuisine with us.

Penne

14 Silver beach Estate, AB Nair Road (Opposite to Juhu Post Office),
Juhu, Mumbai 400 049

Restobar – Lounge

Rustic Italian romance meets contemporary spirit of life.

Tucked away in a quiet nook of Juhu is Penne, a stylish and natural world of simplicity meant for the bon vivant. Done up with its gold walls, charcoal coloured tiled floors, beautiful ceramic chandeliers, creates a perfect warm and cosy setting for an elegant evening, a brisk business luncheon or a long drawn family gathering. Penne will surpass your expectations.

The food is divinely Italian, its spirit reflects the energy of the hustle and bustle of the trattorias and cafes in the bylanes sicily or Tuscany ... with seafood as if just caught, the fire in the ovens, the smoky aromas of the marinade spilling on to the charcoal grill, combined with culinary artistry found in and around Italy.

Designed to suit all your moods, the venue has 2 distinctly defined areas. The al fresco dining outside with its landscaped greenery provides a balance between intimacy for a quiet romance, comfort for indulgent dining or just a cosy afternoon coffee and gelato. The fine dining area has a relaxed casual atmosphere, suited for a serious culinary experience.

PURE is India's first international restaurant with a focus on organic ingredients. The recipes come alive with ingredients that are wholesome, home-grown and at their seasonal best.

The PURE experience allows guests to shift from an off white and minimalist space which has a juice bar to a elevated dining area with rich deep tones, emphasized by a candle lit ambience. The Private Dining Room has a warm intimate dining experience that you will yearn to come back for. The wall recesses are stocked with select wines and canisters of exotic loose-leaf teas, a long communal steel table to seat up to ten guests. Restobar – Lounge

It's a world grill restaurant and lounge bar, split over two levels. The world dining eatery on the upper level is set upon frosted glass, as silver beds and fuchsia pink sequined cushions battle for your attention. Deep purple leather bar stools show off a magenta glass wall with backlights giving it a mystical glow.

The lower area is a pure lounge-zone. Violet, magenta, lavender, mauve undulates before your eyes in the form of pillows, couches and even a couple of swings! One corner of the lounge area is pure purple with white African gerberas pinned onto the walls. Mirrors expand the place into a design delight.

The pride of the place is undoubtedly its stairway. Like the strings of a harp, the sides of the stairway rise to the ceiling in one sweeping motion, clipping the fine dining area to the lounge.

Get in early, as they do not last for too long.

They will be introducing a Buffet facility soon, so thats something to look out for.

This great cafe that sports a Red theme welcomes all of you to come and enjoy their food prepared to perfection, served with a smile while their in house DJ spins some great tracks to add that extra something to your dining experience.

Excellent place for a girls night out, and once the boys find that out, its going to be quite the hot spot. Enjoying a prime location in Bandra it sits pretty amongst all its competitors but is doing very well for itself.

The DJ adds a great feel to this resto bar and enjoying a good meal alongside some alcohol is something you cant get everywhere.

The food is very tasty, we sampled the Barbeque prawns, Fish in Tartar Sauce, a tandoori platter with the usual tikka items. Main course was the chicken Shashlik Sizzler which was too much for one person alone, i guess after all those starters we needed a break.

Restobar – Lounge

Its south Mumbai's favourite nightspot – now reborn! Red Light, at Kala Ghoda, an all time favourite with the party people and lounge-cats alike, announces a change in the people behind it.

Meet the 4 partners behind Red Light – Ritik Bhasin, Shashi Thadani, Sunny Sara and Suvedh Lohia. These 4 have always believed that a night on the town is not just something once a week with friends – it's a complete experience in itself. They started out in college, forming an events company that went around town to the hottest nightspots, often completely changing the place's fortune. Think Coyote Ugly nights and Hip Hop nights around town, House Nights, the 'Globe Trotting' New Year 2003–2004 bash and much more.

Every Thursday onwards, catch some vintage-retro being played. Wednesday Nights become a tribute to pure Hip Hop and R 'n' B, with live acts and rappers thrown in. Every Friday is Fashion Friday at Red Light – catch a well-known face or celebrity hosting a party, fashion shows and more.

Red Light – are you ready to rediscover your wild side?

Seijo & The Soul Dish

206, Krystal Patkar Marg
Bandra (W), Mumbai 400 050

Restaurant

Bombays' answer to casual elegant dining with a modern Asian twist. The restaurant is amply supported with a large, very hip New York style bar.

Extremely trendy and set in essentially two separate zones, the restaurant is akin to an urban Japanese garden with an abundance of water bodies, giving the space a soothing, calm, and graceful ambiance. The restaurant menu showcases a simplistic style, with a quest for the right flavours and ingredients, carefully sourced from the South East.

The bar at Seijo's is primarily a chilled out and relaxed space, catering specifically to a 25 plus audience. It has a vibrant red Italian Travetene floor, one of Bombay's longest bars with three international single bar-stations. The bar is not too loud and will be conducive for people trying to truly relax and hold conversations without having to scream. Japanese pop art adorns the walls giving the space a very hip look.

Restobar – Lounge

'Shiro', meaning castle in Japanese, has a sensuous feel and has been built to represent an Asian Castle, complete with water flows, low seating, niched spaces and mellow lighting.

At Shiro, you will get delectable Asian finger-foods and some of the best cocktails the city can offer. It's space is equally suited for taking the business deal a step forward or unwinding over the weekend with friends.

The restaurant is divided into 4 zones – 3 private rooms and the bar area. The private rooms exude a feeling of luxury, where discerning objects and furniture have been chosen as in a private castle. Rich furnishings in deep saturated colours such as crimson, magenta, prune and purple, in high quality silk, chenille and velvet stand in contrast to the otherwise subdued rustic shell. And, oriental bric-a-brac has been beautiful matched with contemporary essentials making it a visual delight that is relevant today.

The feeling in Shiro is definitely eclectic. It has strong Asian overtones and clever reinterpretations of traditional Japanese, Chinese and Balinese elements which make it warm, engaging and tropical. It exudes equally a sensuous and serene energy. And as one walks through the different private rooms, each offering a unique experience of oriental mystique in a very contemporary style, one feels enveloped in a Castle of Cool!

Sidewok, located at Nariman Point in south Mumbai, is the first independent restaurant backed by The Taj Group of Hotels. The restaurant is inspired by a bevy of Asian cultures, and colours – a mélange of food from South-East Asia. The heart of Sidewok is its ‘Theatre Kitchen’, an action packed open-plan kitchen that showcases the talents and the skills of the chefs at work. The high energy ‘wok’ cuisine includes an ‘Asian Wok Market’, where diners may select from a variety of vegetables, meats and sauces on display, which are stir-fried by the skilled ‘wok-men’.

The restaurant has four seating areas divided by a wide alley that runs across the restaurant. The restaurant boasts of a superb blend of a multi-cultural ‘Pan-Asian cuisine’.

With a new range of starters including ever-popular Satays to commence your gourmet adventure, you will surely be elevated you to your own culinary cloud-nine.

In the early 90's, young Parsi entrepreneurs realised the potential for home delivery of pizzas. From the outset, they wanted to set extremely high standards that would be supplemented by a wide variety of toppings – both vegetarian and Non-Vegetarian – a combination they were sure would appeal to today's youth.

With this objective in mind, they engaged the services of a reputed chef with years of experience working in 5 star hotels in India and abroad. And soon, the first Smokin' Joe's outlet opened at Carmichael Road in Mumbai on July 21, 1993. From day one, their product and service met with resounding success. And when anybody talked of pizzas in the city, they talked of Smokin' Joe's.

Now, having withstood multinational and local competition over the years, Smokin' Joe's is looking to expand operations all over the country. A dream we hope to convert into reality very soon.

Tangy Tamarind

*2nd Floor, Hotel New Castle,
Linking Road,
Khar, Mumbai 400 052*

Restaurant

TANGY TAMARIND, formerly a small cozy restaurant up on Pali Hill has now moved to a new home in the high streets of Mumbai, namely Linking road. In the spirit of ringing in the new, we now have a fresh menu too.

Welcoming and friendly, the new TANGY TAMARIND, an 80 cover restaurant, is spacious, done up in whites and to keep with the old flavors some oranges and yellows. Situated on the 2nd floor of Hotel New Castle, in spite of being in the centre of the entire hustle bustle were still able to maintain our serenity. However, as ever our focus is on food and service, call us old fashioned but that's the way we like it.

The overhauled menu has a multi cuisine set of choices, some new and some old favorites. You could have a variety of culinary traditions ranging from Pizzas, Pastas, European, Indian, South East Asian and even the more universal Burgers. To top it all, you could have a glass of wine or your favorite cocktail from our wide range of spirits.

On the 1st floor we have also opened THE BANANA BAR. After work, pre party, meetings over drinks or just to chill with friends, the bar is ideal with great music, hookahs and happy hours daily between 7.00 PM and 9.00 PM.

We are also now open until 1 AM at our new location so please drop in for a truly delightful culinary experience.

Temple Flower

Hotel King's International, 5,
Juhu Tara Road, Juhu,
Mumbai 400 049

Restaurant

Nestled on the ground floor of Hotel Kings International on Juhu Tara Road...the moment one sets foot into Temple Flower, the new south-east asian cuisine restaurant, the zen décor embraces you and one can feel the prevalent warmth in this very contemporary looking place.

Temple Flower has 3 distinct areas: the open air dining with an interactive bar and kitchen, the lobby level and the Upper level. The chefs promise wholesome and authentic cuisine. The yakitori, tempuras, Asian asparagus sticks and coconut pancakes are a must try.

The restaurant's focus is smart casuals. A place for lunch and dinner, or just a drink, a business meeting or even that 'Oh so quintessential' part of Mumbai, the kitty party.

All in all, Temple Flower is all things to a lot of people and will offer the perfect alternative to a smart and trendy outing with a good experience. Aesthetic yet functional, simple but charismatic, Temple Flower, has the ambience that hopes to keep its patrons coming back.

Tetsuma

*41/44, Mon Repos, Minoo Desai Marg,
Behind Radio Club,
Colaba, Mumbai 400 005*

Restaurant

Those with a fine palate will soon have a unique journey to explore, a culinary voyage into the realms of Japanese ethnicity, through the one true facet that truly advocates the same – its fine cuisine. ‘Tetsuma’- a fine dining venture by Aditya Kilachand and Vickrant Chougule of chateau Indage, is a concept pioneered and inspired by Nobu.

The philosophy adapted by Tetsuma is in sync with the essence of Japanese cuisine –a mélange of simple techniques applied to extract and enhance the flavours from the best of ingredients, notwithstanding the basic essence of Japanese cuisine which is light, modern, clean and fresh.

The menu at Tetsuma reflects a versatile array of Japanese cuisine, apt for the discerning diner. The Tetsuma menu also aims to introduce the concept of eclectic cuisine to a broader class of patrons by offering an alternate dining experience – Nouvelle Japanese fare. The ethos behind Tetsuma is to deliver an authentic flavour of the East respecting Japanese tradition, while incorporating modern styles.

Tetsuma, which means ‘Tornado’ in Japanese, boasts the unique concept of a bar which doubles up as a table, sliding glass doors for each table – creating an illusion of privacy and niches which unfurl into ponds. Chic and contemporary, the interiors are tastefully embellished in natural wood tones. The ambience is alluring enough to transport one into a space where time stands still and each patron can delve into their own sensory niche. The design is influenced by Eastern philosophy, and combines ancient culinary customs with contemporary culture. Water, light and glass are key elements.

Established in the uptown district of Colaba, Tetsuma is lavishly spread over 3,500 sq ft. of valued space. The restaurant flaunts an extensive selection of sake and its own wine cellar which boasts of over 3,000 bottles of wine from across the globe.

Restobar – Lounge

A 90 seater restaurant with bright yellow and blue walls, floating candles, rustic wooden panels and coloured pebbles, Trafalgar Chowk is a 'dining terminus' where people can wine, dine, swing and rock together in an ambience that expresses a subtle blend of an Anglo-rustic theme with that of a more local one. There is a separate area for private parties and other events. There is ample seating and elbow room, air-conditioned as well as alfresco dining and a separate party area for private parties and other celebrations. There is a well-stocked bar with a Wine chiller too to keep you in high spirits throughout the evening. What is particularly an architectural delight is the men's cloakroom where our interior expert Clement has let his imagination go wild with a creative use of glass panels and coloured pebbles. Trafalgar Chowk is the brainchild of Meldan D'cunha, who is also responsible for other restaurants like Soul Fry.

The crab dishes here are highly gratifying. The décor is themed and you guessed it... its fishy. With beautiful fish aquariums and gorgeous seating the place prepares you for the cuisine that is only more enticing. They have Buffets that are quite reasonably priced and full of delicious food. The ambiance is good (for lack of a better word) with rounded seating that enhances privacy. The place does well for a family lunch/dinner or even a corporate meeting over some tantalizing seafood. Zenzi

Zenzi, 183, Waterfield Road,
Bandra (W), Mumbai 400 050

Restobar – Lounge

An attitude called Zenzi: Zenzi Mumbai is the place for meeting people. Walk in anytime. The classic yet contemporary atmosphere is right for every rendezvous. The crisp business breakfast. A dinner to toast and celebrate. Lunch to catch up with friends. Sunday brunch with the family. Friday evening drinks to unwind with the office gang. Or just quiet cocktails for two.

The ambience that Zenzi strives to achieve through its music is about fusing a comfortable bar vibe with an upbeat music venue that hosts DJs and live musicians.

Restaurant, bar, lounge and the outdoor area ... Zenzi has all these, but it is more than a place to eat. Zenzi is the name of an open, multi-cultural attitude and a way of looking at life.
